The villa is part of a project located on 400 hectares land in the Mugla province, a beautiful region home to mountainous landscapes, coastal lowlands, protected bays and, of course, open seas. The coastline spans over 5 kilometers with 6 beaches. The innovative architecture allows the villas to seamlessly dissolve into the surrounding environment, making for a secluded and natural experience. Thanks to their modular format, the light and cozy residences provide the perfect combination of privacy and community. This property is located in Phase 1 of the project, its architect is Carlos Ferrater. The exclusive Six Senses Hotel & Spa is adjacent. The Villa is single storey and features a spacious and light living area opening to the pool deck, the kitchen is set a few steps ab [...]
