An original Bodrum townhouse with terraces Located in the heart of Bodrum town, within the gates of a beautiful boutique Hotel (Manzara), this semidetached home has the features of the traditional Bodrum houses. The entrance floor comprises of the living room opening to the large terrace, a fully equipped eat-in kitchen and the adjacent glassed in winter garden to the back. A guest WC completes this floor. On the first floor is a bedroom with large terrace and partial views of the bay and St. Peter Castle, a 2nd bedroom with windows to the garden and a shared bathroom. The roof terrace features wonderful views over the city and bay, and has a small glassed-in room either as storage or as a retreat on windy days. Air condition in all rooms. A closed garage completes the property. [...]
